THE CLASS OF 1952 DEDICATES...

the cherished memories of our four years at Ursuline, our Alma Mater . . . to Mary, Our Lady of Grace.

In the years we have spent here under her loving protection, many beautiful things have happened to us . . . many things we want to remember always.

We have tried, in the 1952 Ursulinian, to bring to mind some of these things . . . but one cannot always recapture memories in a picture . . . or in picturesque words. The memories are in the minds and hearts of us who lived those blessed days.

We added to our storehouse of treasured memories . . . day by day . . . year by year . . . precious memories . . . the good times . . . the solemn times . . . Mary made them beautiful . . . she made them good . . . and because of her we will keep them in our hearts forever.

Sometimes we felt discouraged and thought that "no one understood." We turned to her, our Heavenly Mother, and our doubts and fears were soon dispelled. We stopped a moment by her shrine . . . it was quiet there and we listened . . . We opened our troubled hearts to her . . . and she made them light again.

Through the years we have learned to love our Alma Mater . . . this place where we studied . . . made friends . . . and grew strong in our Faith.

Alma Mater...

Dear Old Ursuline High

Our Leader Supreme

AS GUIDE of the souls of all men, the Vicar of Christ on earth has given us fatherly direction in our high school years through his representatives, our teachers: his priests and nuns.

Countless thousands who had the happiness of seeing him and speaking with him during the Holy Year, saw in him the "Good Shepherd" who takes Christ's place in a truly real manner. Greathearted, wise, merciful, lovable, he won the honest tender affection of people of all classes and creeds.

Daily he pleads with us to do all in our power by daily prayer and daily sacrifice to win a just and lasting peace. He bids us "honor all men," to have love one for another, to do all that we do in a spirit of "constant mutual charity."

These are our memories of our Christlike leader, the leader who warns us against the tenets of a pagan world, the leader who fires us with the assurance that "Christ has the words of eternal life."

His Holiness, Pope Pius XII

His Excellency
The Most Reverend
James A. McFadden,

ONE of the most pleasant memories of our high school life will be the paternal interest of Bishop McFadden. Our devotion to him may well be explained as the reflex of his genuine kindness. His is a great heart. He loves his own, and his own return the love of their dear Father.

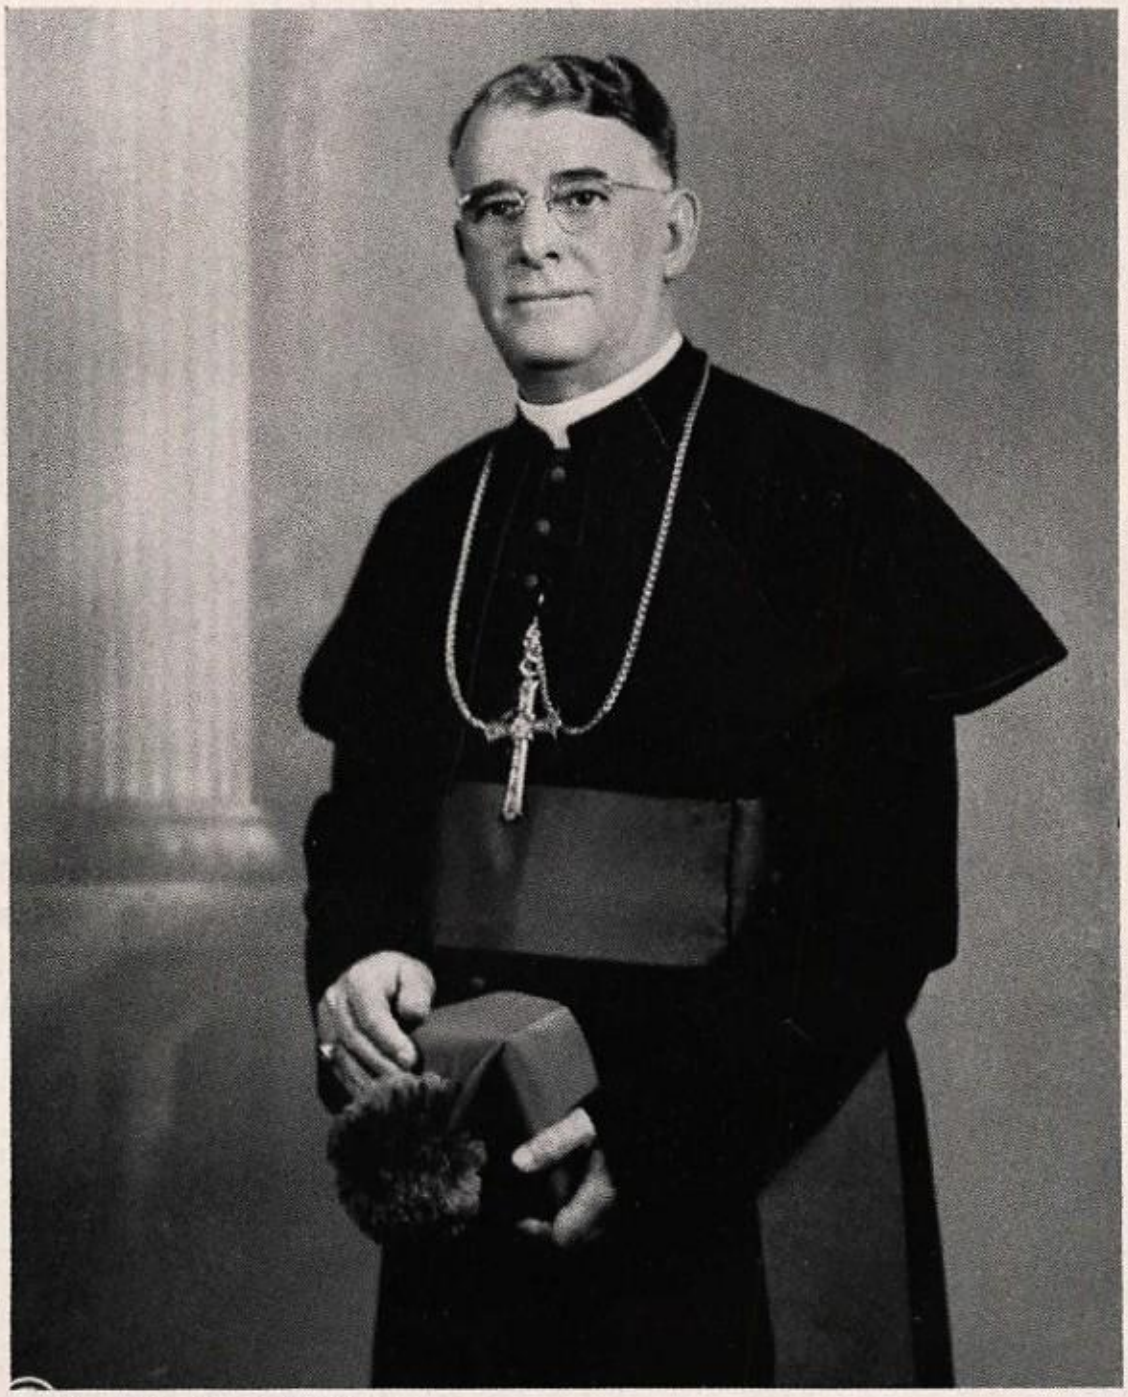
At our opening Mass . . . Christmas . . .Baccalaureate . . . Graduation . . . Bishop McFadden was there to guarantee pleasant memories for us. His visits, though all too few of late, provide bright spots in our book of memories.

He has shown us the way to Catholic living by emphasizing the spiritual and eternal. For this we will always gratefully remember him.

OUR MEMORIES of His Excellency, Bishop Emmet M. Walsh, will be that of an exceptional person, possessed of that all-too-rare combination, a kindly, genial personality and a shrewd, sharp mind. He represents for us Catholic leadership of first rank.

As Coadjutor, Bishop Walsh has done amazingly fine work, as a glance at the record will prove—work that has won for him immense respect and admiration.

His Excellency is particularly interested in the secondary school because he believes that at this all-important level, young men and women can be best molded and trained to take their places as real Catholic leaders, leaders who will help win the world for Christ.



His Excellency
The Most Reverend
Emmet M. Walsh, D.D.

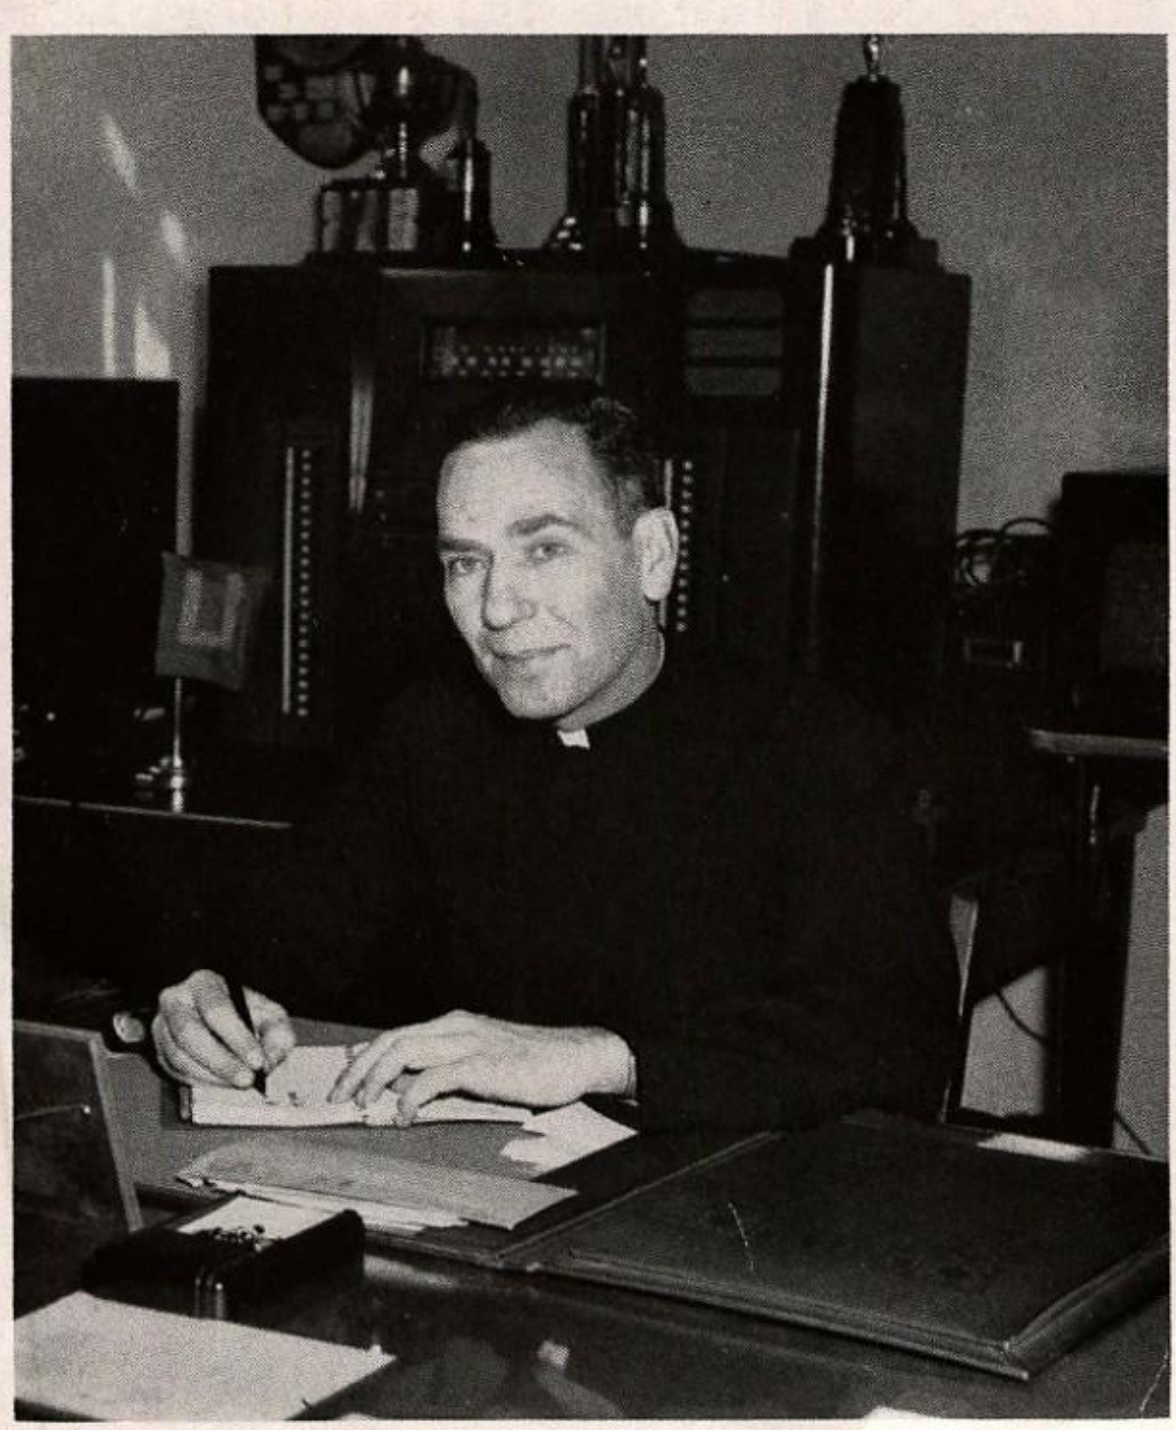
AN INTEGRAL PART of our memories of Ursuline will be Father Holdbrook, our tall friendly principal, the priest with the inimitable smile. Those of us who had him in class know him best perhaps. He was always quick with his sharp wit when things tended to become over-serious.

"And what do you think, Miss Blank?" he would say. Miss Blank, who usually ranked in the upper tenth, would rise and attempt an opinion. Then Father would smile that inimitable smile and make the point clear.

His illustrative cartoons, too, we will long remember . . . whenever an idea was particularly hard for us to grasp . . . he would draw a picture . . . and then we would understand. At football and basketball games, at school dances and at all activities, we looked for Father's familiar figure.

Always friendly, we will perhaps best remember him in our talks with him during the lunch hours. Interested and understanding, he generally had a suggestion for our every problem. Many times, too, he had a difficulty for our every solution. Those were happy hours. They will be among the most cherished memories of Alma Mater.



Father Holdbrook
Principal

Father Reagan
Assistant Principal

FRIENDLY, hardworking—and above all, vitally interested in us—this will be our memory of Father Reagan, our assistant principal.

From his little corner office in the Arts building, dynamic Father Reagan, an alumnus of Ursuline, directs with a firm hand and considerable assurance the full schedule that is his. In his capacity as booster of the cheerleaders, rally director, adviser to the student council, aid to band-director, Mr. Vitello and dean of boys, Father Reagan works with a spirit of enthusiasm and interest which makes for successful endeavor.

He knows every student by name and has a friendly smile and word of encouragement for each boy and girl. He knows how to put things so that even the greenest freshman will understand them; he wins over the most recalcitrant senior by his power of temperate persuasion. Father Reagan will long remain for us the symbol of understanding and encouragement.

Alma Mater... Ursuline High

...Seniors

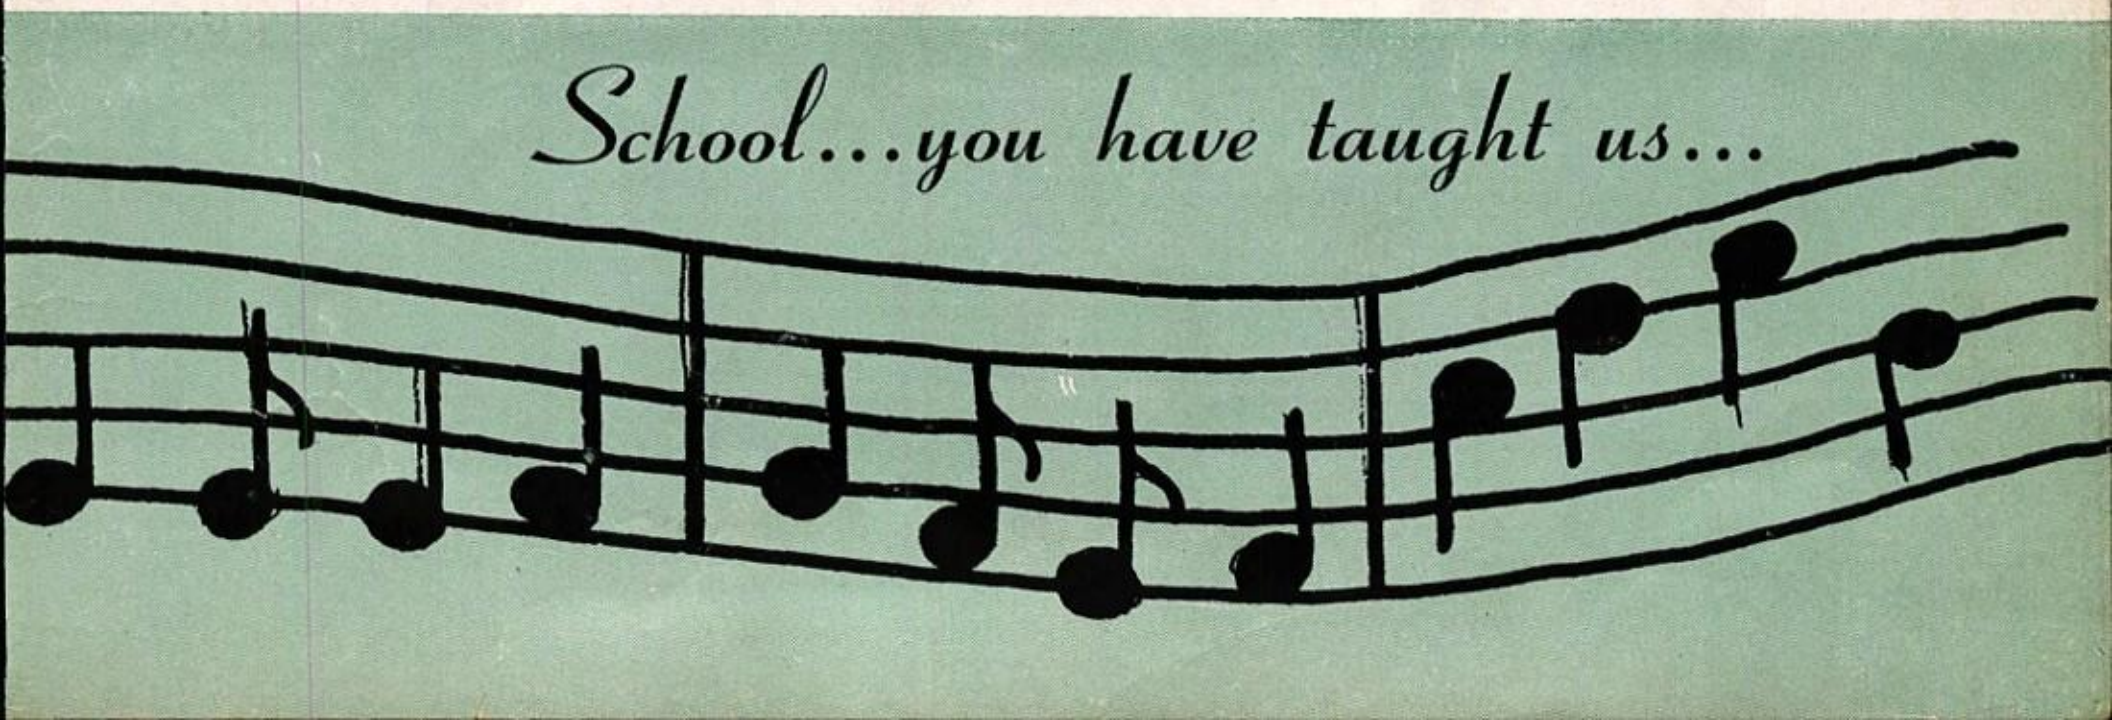
THE TIME has come to speak of Commencement . . . June, 1952. The year has rolled past too quickly and we are already busy with the rush and bustle of the end of the school term. It's so hard to leave our Alma Mater. Four years we have worked and struggled and looked forward to graduation day. And now that graduation is so near we wish there were just a little more time.

But there are still a few more memories to be gathered before we say our goodbyes. May marks the date for the Junior-Senior Prom which is always the height of the social whirl for us. Those juniors have great ideas up their third-year sleeves, so it should prove a memorable event.

It's June . . . Baccalaureate . . . the blessing of Holy Mother Church on our departure.

And then Commencement itself . . . not the end, but the beginning. The time has come to live well by keeping in mind all we have learned and applying it to our lives.

Alma Mater will ever hold a prominent place in our memories, for it was here we learned to live. Yes, Alma Mater, we your loyal sons and daughters will remember you always.



The Class of 1952

AT LAST we are on the final rung of our school ladder. Throughout this year we took part in some familiar activities for the last time together. Our athletes, band members, majorettes and cheerleaders enjoyed their last Varsity Hop. Our scholars received their last recognition here on the honor roll. We seniors attended our last Benediction as a class. Four years have slipped through our fingers. Four wonderful, unforgettable years. Reluctantly we leave our teachers and our classmates, but most reluctantly of all, we leave our Alma Mater.

Memories . . . take us back to the fall of '48 when we confused freshies trudged across the campus with heads not-too-high but with hearts full of expectation. The thrill of the magic words . . . prom . . . varsity . . . seniors . . . were distant then, but very close now. We went over the top in the Exponent campaign that year, bringing in a total of $999.00. Quite a sum for "little" us!

As sophomores and upperclassmen, we were now more self-assured and considered ourselves well on the way to supreme sophistication. We finally had our feet on the ground and new freshmen were our humble underlings. Again we were on top in the annual magazine campaign, which goes to show that a good class can't be kept down. This is coming from "modest" us!

As juniors, our class officers, headed by president Jack McPhillips, displayed fine organizing ability as they led us in making the junior-senior prom a huge success. In the sport spotlight were football first stringers Jim Ramm and Ed Ochman, and John Steadman and Dan O'Horo who lassoed first string in basketball. The proof of "successful" us!

Good Bye... Alma Mater!

We your loyal sons and daughters...

...Classes

AS SLOWLY as the strains of a prelude wind their way into the hearts of any audience, the freshmen won their way through the year which is to become each one's exclusive cherished memory. We're proud of our "frosh", for without their awe and confusion, no high school would be complete. Struggling through their ratios and proportions, "amo, amas, amat" and the intricacies of the dangling participle . . . here is truly the "green" of "our colors green and gold".

The interlude between the lower classmen and the real upperclassmen is known as the sophomore class. Memorizing theorems, helping Caesar direct his armies, and rivaling even Mark Antony's delivery of "Friends, Romans, Countrymen" has kept them busy. But not too busy to enjoy their own dance, the "Snow Ball", the climax of their wonderful year of hopes, dreams and work.

In preparation for their final encore as seniors, is the junior class with maestro Dick Brobst in the bandbox, and assistant conductors Jan Clifford, Margie Drieling, Bill Mermis and Barbara Knott. With their honor roll students, their spark-plugs of the varsity squad and their pre-prom festivities, the juniors have chorused their way scholastically, athletically and socially into the heart of Ursuline.

pledge to you...our faith untold... We are always ready...

"Now, right over here we find . . ."

Locating places in the Holy Land are Noreene Handel, Gary Olsavsky, Margaret Klempay, Jack Storey, Jo Ann Jackanich, Mary Pat Clark, and Rose Marie Nohra.

"Now is the time for . . . a speed test"

It's ready! Set! Go! for Patty O'Neil, Barbara Gibson, Joan Lantz, Audrey Ruane, John Myers, Roseann Lyden and Gene Carlon.

"Looks as if Warner Brothers have competition"

Joan Lantz and Hugh Barnwell present slides on the workings of our government to Jack McPhillips, Dan O'Horo, Alice Benedict, Eileen McKinney and Jim Corbett.

Ad Jesum per Mariam...anybody got an extra pencil...comprenez vous...

"Such efficiency!"

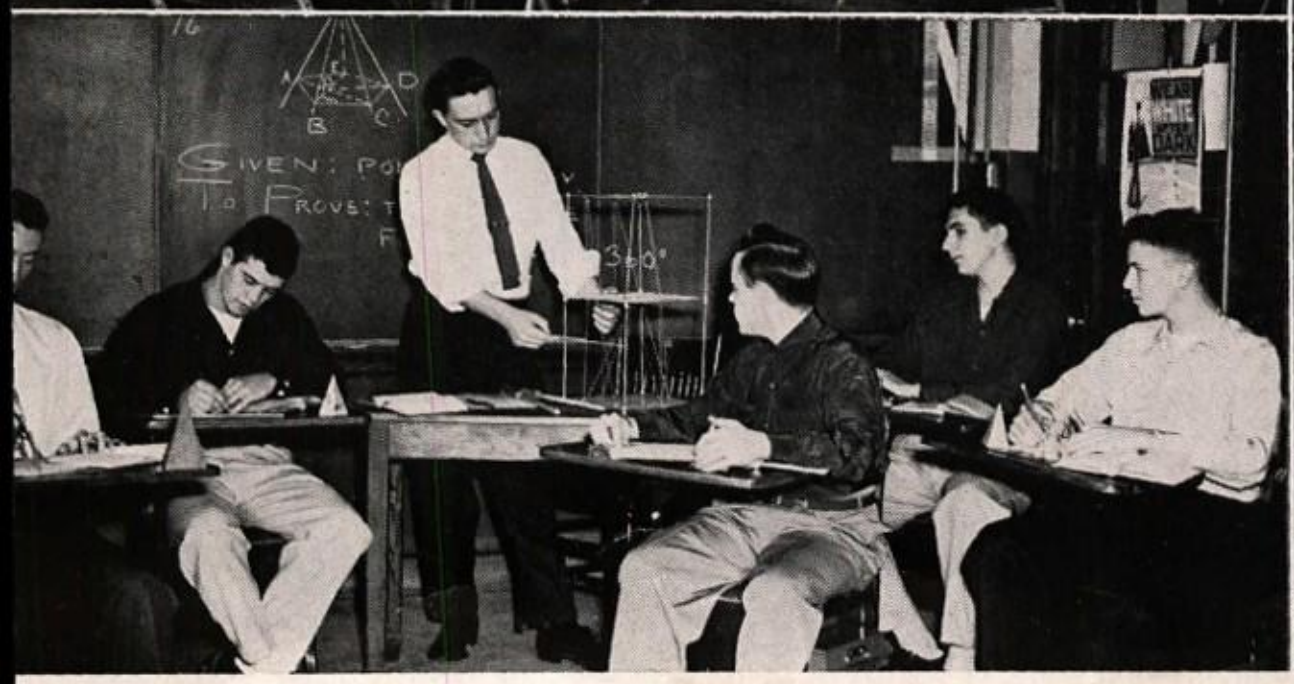
Business is booming when Florence Saunders, Dorothy DuBois, Eleanor Kofler, Monica Miller, Dorothy Korchnak, Roberta Jacobs, Margaret Durkin, and Emma Jane Riley work as a team.

"If you pull this little string here . . ."

"Solid geometry made easy" is explained by Pat McCartan to Ray Costello, Joe Phelan and Bill Eberhardt while Tom Lavin and Jim Ramm work individually.

"What's so interesting?"

Patty Sequella, Seely Beggiani, and Pat Riley look on as Joanie Lyden explains French verbs.



"Don't you wish you could paint like this?"

Joe Strechansky, Eileen McKinney, Alice Benedict, Betty Masternick, Bill Hughes, and Pat McCartan display their artistic ability.

Ahh, Macbeth...got your speech?...

"Shakespeare was never like this!"

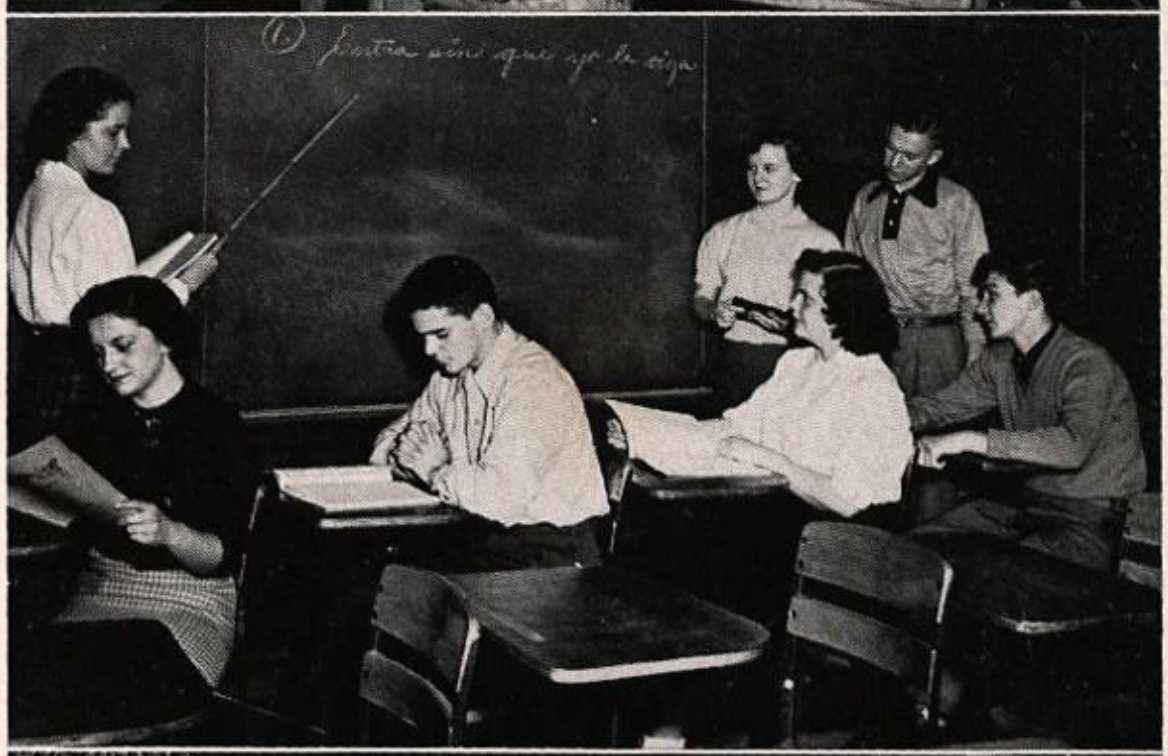
Agree Senior English students George Puettner, Pat Flynn, Betty Ann Rochford, Nick Billett, John Steadman, and Jo Ann Kenny.

"Danger, chemists at work!"

Watch that H_2SO_4! Chuck Franklin, Bill Cleary, Frank Foster, and Seely Beggiani further their knowledge of things scientific.

"What's the meaning of this?"

Anna Marie Forgac plays teacher for Barbara Gibson, Dan O'Horo, Eileen Coustillac, Audrey Ruane, Jack Storey and Jim Corbett.



"Nancy, that might be the style in 1960"

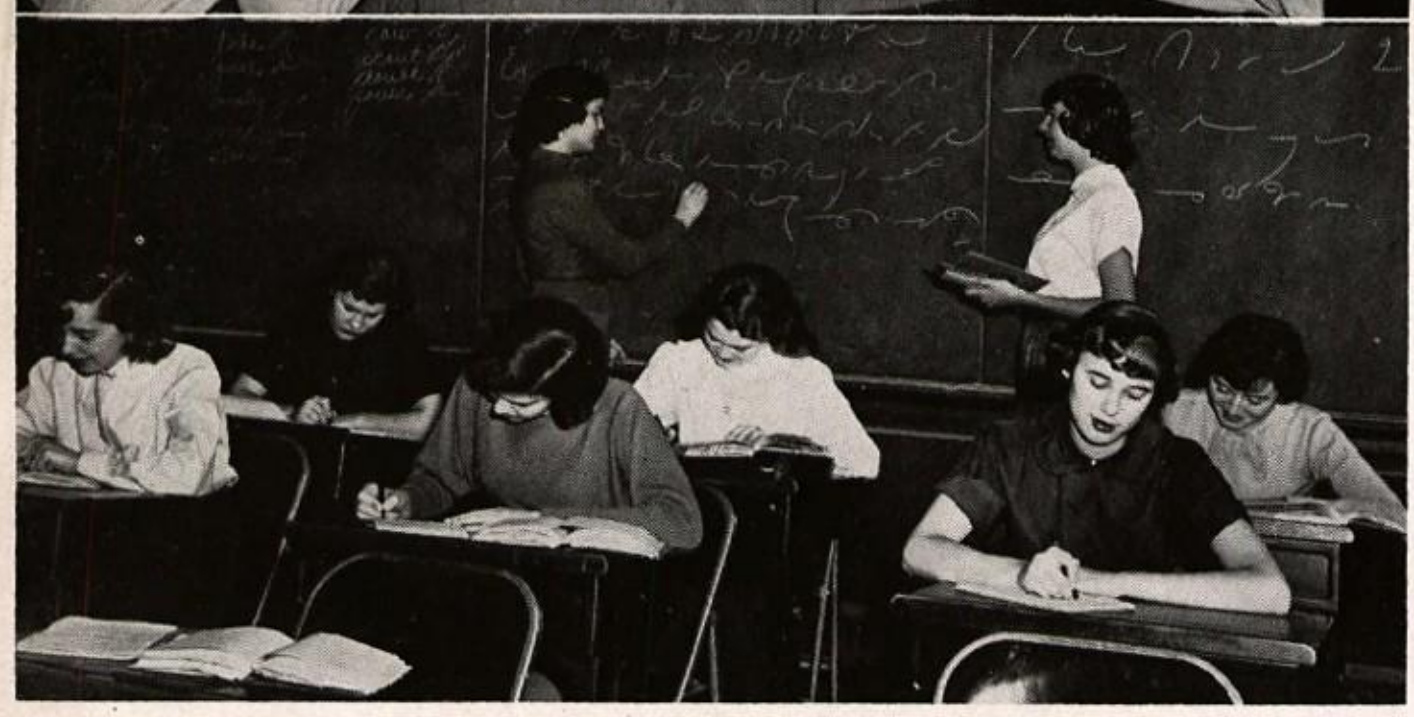
Measuring, sewing, ripping, are Roseann Sweeney, Barbara Gibson, Nancy Hackett, Jean Beardman, and Dorothy Rudge.

"This is your student announcer, bringing you . . ."

Ned Ochman, Jim McCray, Jerry McMahon, Maureen Greene, and Georgeann McDonald rehearsing for the "big day."

"Handsome, isn't he?"

It might not be pretty, but it certainly is interesting. At least Steve Snitzer, Antoinette Kramer, Joe Strechansky, and Otto Drieling think so.



. . . "And it has a little squiggle on the end"

"Dear Sir" . . . these are familia wards to Monica Topley, Rose mary Gardner, Marijane Renaldy Rosejane Renaldy, Florence Fu long, Pat O'Neil, Margie Thoma and Mary Jane Franken.

Alligators...amo, amas, amat,...

"Want to find the specific gravity of a solid heavier than water?"

Consult Jack McPhillips, Mary Frances Sharkey, Margaret Docherty, or Bill Smith.

"O times—O customs— O what's that next word?"

These are George Puettner's thoughts as he translates fo Hugh Barnwell, Seely Beggiani, and Anna Marie Forgac.

"Can't make any mistakes on that Ohio Turnpike"

May I borrow your math book?...

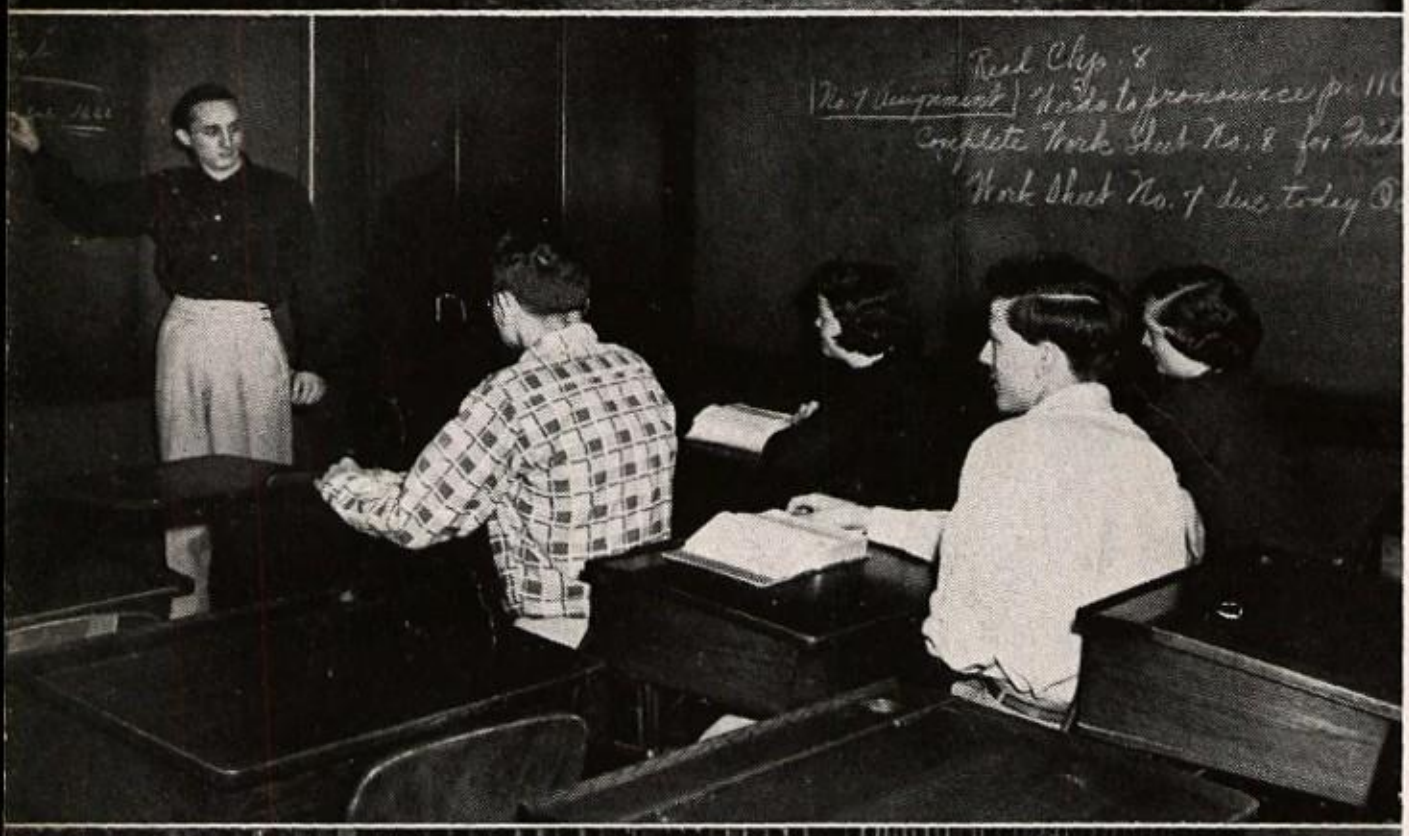
"Math Club— Big Four Discussion"

Math is a specialty for officers Joe Vogelberger, Pat McCartan, Jack McPhillips, and John Steadman.

Yes...there are so many things...to remember

"Vote for Myers! Bring back the fair deal!"

Settling national problems are Kay Donna Holland, Tom Carney, Mary Anne McHugh, John Myers, Dorothy Rudge, and Robert Coe.



"Future C.P.A.'s"

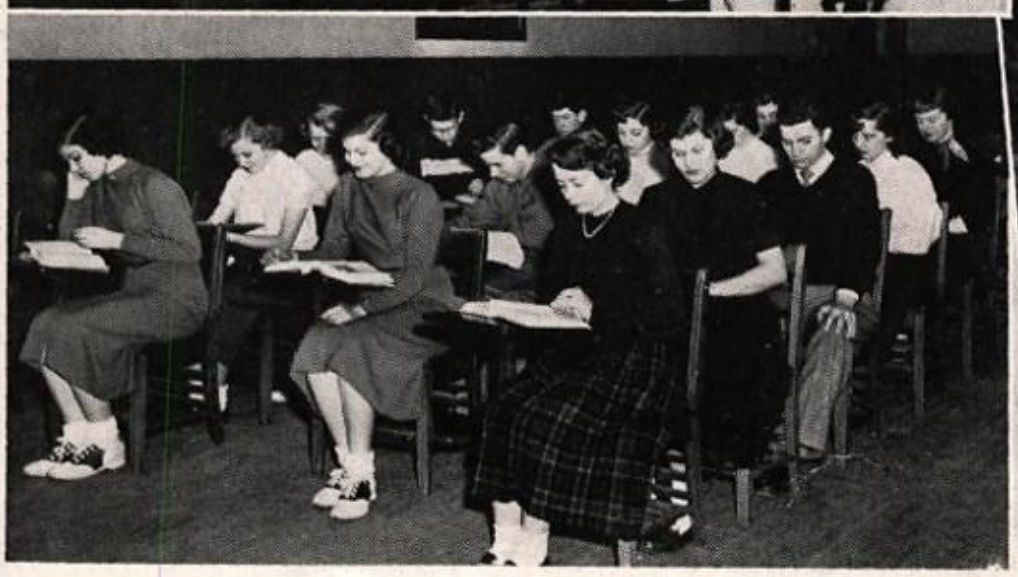
To learn about balancing your accounts see Ed Ridel, Bill Cleary, Mary Lou Jennings, Jim Beil, and Emma Jane Riley.

"Eight syllable word? Historical fact? You name it . . . they'll find it!"

Who? why, Antonette Kramer, Ann Hughes, Betty Masternick, Barbara Ockerman, and Mary Pat Clark.

...For instance...

. . . Only four minutes to get to the Arts building . . . "Chopsticks" for two . . . Let the he-men carry it . . . Did you register at the polls? . . . "Untidy Joseph's" on the menu again . . . Test next period? . . . No hurry on a day like this.



In our hearts...and

. . . Activities

BEFORE we leave our beloved Alma Mater, let us take a last lingering look at some of the red-letter days on our busy extracurricular calendar.

Who could forget the Saint Ursula's Day program with its four angelic messengers? . . . The "oh's and "ah's" that greeted the first glimpse of the professional-looking sets and lighting at the Christmas assembly? . . . The prize-winning "feel-avision" rally?

Anyone like to dance? . . . There was plenty of opportunity at the Ursuline Ballroom. At the Varsity Hop, for instance, after letter certificates were given out to the football players, majorettes and band members.

And how about the first annual homecoming game, the pre-game bonfire rally and the parade to Rayen . . . it was an unforgettable event for those who braved the ice and snowdrifts to attend.

Sports . . . dances . . . student entertainment. The three combined made for a fun-packed social calendar. Fun-packed and memory-filled. Pleasant memories . . . beautiful memories . . . all part of our long-cherished last look at Alma Mater.

A link between the administration and the student body, the student council is made up of senior class officers, four members elected by the students and seven appointed by the faculty. Its purpose is to promote leadership, responsibility, initiative and to imbue its members with an appreciation of democracy.

Under the advisory supervision of the assistant principal, Reverend Donald Reagan, the council considers, in open session, the suggestions and petitions of the students, acts upon them and submits its recommendation to the administrative board for final approval.

The 1952 student council sponsored, and supervised, through various committees, the gala Homecoming Festival at Thanksgiving, replete with pep rally, bonfire and parade. The council assisted the annual staff in the securing of ads, helped solve congestion problems at assemblies and initiated student-of-the-month awards. The memorable St. Ursula Day program was sponsored and managed by the council.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS

Twenty-six students who have been outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character and service through their high school days have been given the highest recognition the school can offer: membership in the National Honor Society.

Requirements for admission are such that a great variety of students are included; the consistently able scholar, the athlete who rates high in integrity, the leader in school projects, the friendly, useful person who is interested in school service.

These, our loyal sons and daughters will lead in their chosen field of endeavor, whether it be religious life, business, medicine, law or Catholic parenthood.

work and fun...

Ursulinian Staff

With high hopes the editorial and business staffs of the "Alma Mater" annual set out to record in picture and story a treasure for time to come.

Every staff member worked with a sort of holding-his-breath earnestness to make the '52 annual top-rate. At varying intervals the staff was inspired, exasperated, thrilled and discouraged.

And now, The Ursulinian comes to you with the hope that it will serve as a pleasant remembrance of the story of 1951-52 here at Ursuline.

Art and picture staff are: Anna Marie Forgac, Alice Benedict, Eileen McKinney, Mary Agnes Howley, Patrick McCarton, Betty Masternick, Ann Hughes, Kathleen Hanna, Dorothy Rudge, Patti Riley and Mary Grace Dignan.

Co-editors: Betty Ann Rochford and Georgeann McDonald.

Business Managers: Bill Smith and Hugh Barnwell.

Business Staff: Jack Storey, Barbara Gibson, Jim McCray, Jim Corbett and Jo Ann Haggerty.

Sports Staff: Joseph Smaltz, Hugh Barnwell, Frank Foster, Jim Corbett, Jim McCray and Michael Laffey.

Votes were cast and counted. The student body . . . and especially the juniors . . . anxiously awaited the final outcome. At last the familiar three chimes sounded and the announcement came. "Junior prom king and queen for 1951 will be . . . John Valley and Jo Ann Haggerty."

Committees were organized and set to work. Large supplies of elbow grease and midnight oil were used in transforming the Ursuline gym into its other self . . . the Ursuline ballroom.

And then came the big night . . . and the big moment . . . the coronation. Last year's royalty placed crowns on the heads of the monarchs.

Queen Jo Ann, with her attendants, Joan Lantz and Audrey Ruane, reigned under an imitation star-studded sky.

Can we ever forget the biggest date of our junior year? . . . May 25 . . . the prom!

One of the best-known groups at Ursuline is the Glee Club. It is pleasant to hear happy voices resound over the campus every Glee Club period.

The Glee Club takes part in many performances during the year, among them, the Christmas Program, the Saint Ursula's Day Assembly and the Saint Patrick's Day Show. But most notable of all is the annual spring concert.

Within the Glee Club there are a few smaller units. The mixed chorus, made up of seniors did an outstanding job in the Christmas Program. Another unit, the Girls' Ensemble, has performed for various clubs and organizations, wishing top rate entertainment. This year, an enthusiastic group of boys in the Glee Club helped organize the Boys' Ensemble. They contributed the masculine touch to Glee Club performances.

"Now where does the missal go?" Preparing for Christmas Mass are altar committee members Ann Hughes, Noreen Handel, Mary Frances Sharkey, Nancy Hackett and Antoinette Kramer.

Caring for the altar and preparing the priest's vestments for Mass and Benediction is the two-fold purpose of the Altar Committee.

In performing these duties, the girls become familiar with the meaning and use of the sacred vestments and gain a deeper appreciation for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

"Here's where we send our offerings!" Mission club officers Ronald Anderson, Ann Hughes, Jack Manning and Emma Jane Riley point out the club's contacts around the globe.

Ursuline's Mission Clubs, the Theresian and Xaverian Clubs promote activities for the aid of mission workers in many far-off corners of the globe.

Paramount among the projects of the 1952 Mission Club were the collection of magazines, rosaries and cards for foreign missions, and the Happy Hearts Hop, an annual mission club dance for mission support.

At the completion of the campus shrine to Our Lady, members of the Mission Club portrayed the living rosary at the shrine as a special October tribute.

There are many things you will enjoy reminiscing . . . let us say in 1980?

. . . His Excellency, Bishop James A. McFadden, offered a pontifical Mass in Saint Columba Cathedral, Monday, September 10 to mark the opening of the 1951-1952 school term.

. . . Ursuline is getting bigger and better every year! Enrollment figures for 1951 seem to indicate that rubber walls will soon be needed to enclose the rapidly increasing numbers. This year's total for the school is 809 students. Among these are five European exchange students.

the news in a capsule...

. . . Highlighting the first football rally of the season was the presentation of a bouquet of red roses to Our Lady by co-captains Mike Carney and Joe Smaltz. Leading the football players to the newly erected shrine, they dedicated the successes and failures of the football season to her.

. . . Slowly down the aisle of Saint Columba Cathedral on memorable August 30 walked not one bride, but eight! In this, the most beautiful bridal procession of the year, eight Ursuline novices, including six Ursuline alumnae, became brides of Christ.

Father Leopold Braun speaks of Russian folklore and customs to Father Holdbrook and reporters Kathleen Hanna and Maureen Greene.

. . . A sixty-member marching band is again the proud boast of Ursuline. This is largely due to the efforts and inspiration of Father Donald Reagan, dean of men, and Mr. Orlando Vitello, band director. Twelve majorettes led by drum major Michael Laffey, make a colorful addition to the band lineup.

. . . A voice and manner commanding the attention of all listeners, a wealth of information on foreign affairs and a fascinating story of life in the Soviet Union were brought to us by Father Leopold L. S. Braun, A. A. when he spoke to the student body, Friday, November 16.

. . . To further visual aid material as a supplement to study for classes, The Federal Iron Works presented the school with a check for $600 for the purchase of a RCA movie projector.

. . . Campaign promises and pre-election speeches were a thing of the past when 87% of registered student voters went to the polls in the Votes and Vetoes mock election on November 6.

. . . "That's my boy!" seemed to be reflected on the smiling face of each father as he sat on the bench watching his son during the Ursuline-Canton-Central game last Saturday night. The occasion was "Dad's Night," honoring the fathers of the football players at Ursuline's first homecoming celebration.

. . . Even today Jesus calls to His children to "Come apart into a desert place." Nearly 200 senior and junior girls answered this loving call of their Master at a day of recollection, November 18. This year the day was dedicated to the Blessed Mother and was called "Ave Maria Day" in her honor.

. . . Fourteen student representatives, accompanied by Father Reagan attended the "Little White House Conference" at the Y.M.C.A., Friday, November 9.

. . . On December 14th, imitation scissors, proclaiming, "We're sharp" were worn by the sophomore, junior and senior girls of the clothing classes.

. . . The traditional Christmas assembly, produced jointly by the Glee Club and the Dramatics Club was presented to the student body on December 14.

. . . "Win, lose or draw, Ursuline is the finest school in the city as far as I am concerned," declared Coach Carey, "and I wouldn't trade places with a coach in this or any city."

"Mark time... march
are familiar words

the fierce loyalty...

Introducing . . . the new Ursuline marching band. "There goes our band . . . Do you see those majorettes?"

The band now totals a neat fifty members. It offers the music student an opportunity for experience and facility in playing publicly for football games, parades and various entertainments during the school year.

Under the direction of Mr. Orlando Vitello, the band played the snappy, invigorating march of the "Alma Mater," boosting the Ursuline spirit at games and rallies. When at the half the band played "The Hike Song", it meant something new to sing:

"Shoulder to shoulder, bearing her banners high,
Burn high your fires and swing along for Ursuline High."

The band has grown large and has done well, and its music has become a part of the everyday life of Ursuline—for fine music helps build fine character.

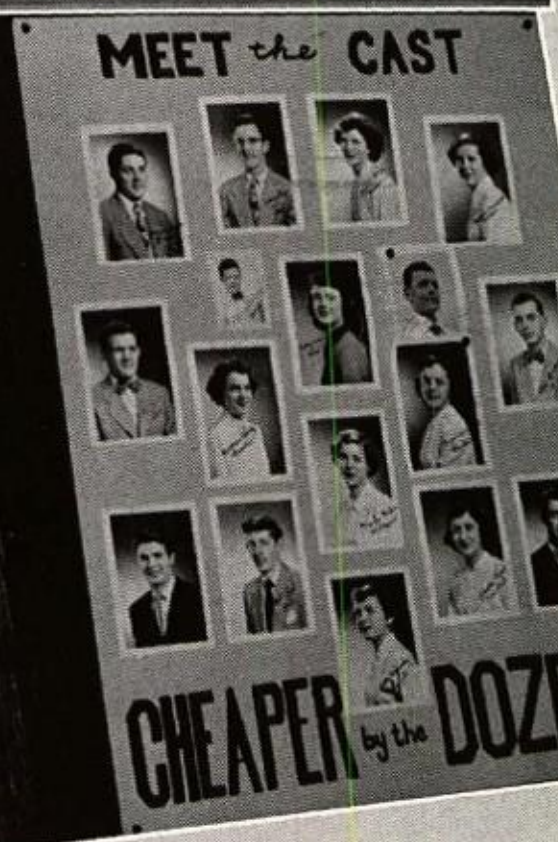
The Gilberts



We will never forget...our...Alma Mater.

Dramatic groups are really active here at Ursuline. Members are kept busy producing plays, learning lines, painting flats, erecting stage settings, collecting properties and other odd jobs.

"Cheaper by the Dozen" or "the trials and tribulations of the twelve," was the delightful and amusing portrayal of life in the Gilbreth home. Harry Guy and Dorothy Weaver starred in leading roles with a superb supporting cast of Yolanda Ripoli, Jean Hernan, Theresa Conrecode, Kathleen Reedy, Mary Lou McGovern, Jack Pierson, Dennis Barrett, Ralph Reel, Charles Wollitz, David Slattery, Gilbert Nichols, Marjorie Bertrand and William Kane.

Curtain time for the 1952 edition of dramatic productions brought us the spectacular Christmas show, the Saint Patrick's Day musical and, as a fitting climax to a great year, the senior play.

St. Ursula Day angels are Jack McPhillips, Roger Dempsey, Joe Smaltz and Fred Bord.

Doing the leads when the Props and Paints revised "Julius Caeser" were Jerry McMahon, John Valley, Joe DeAngelis, Bill Smith, Pat McCartan, Cecil Kimmel, Jack McPhillips and Bill Eichenberger.

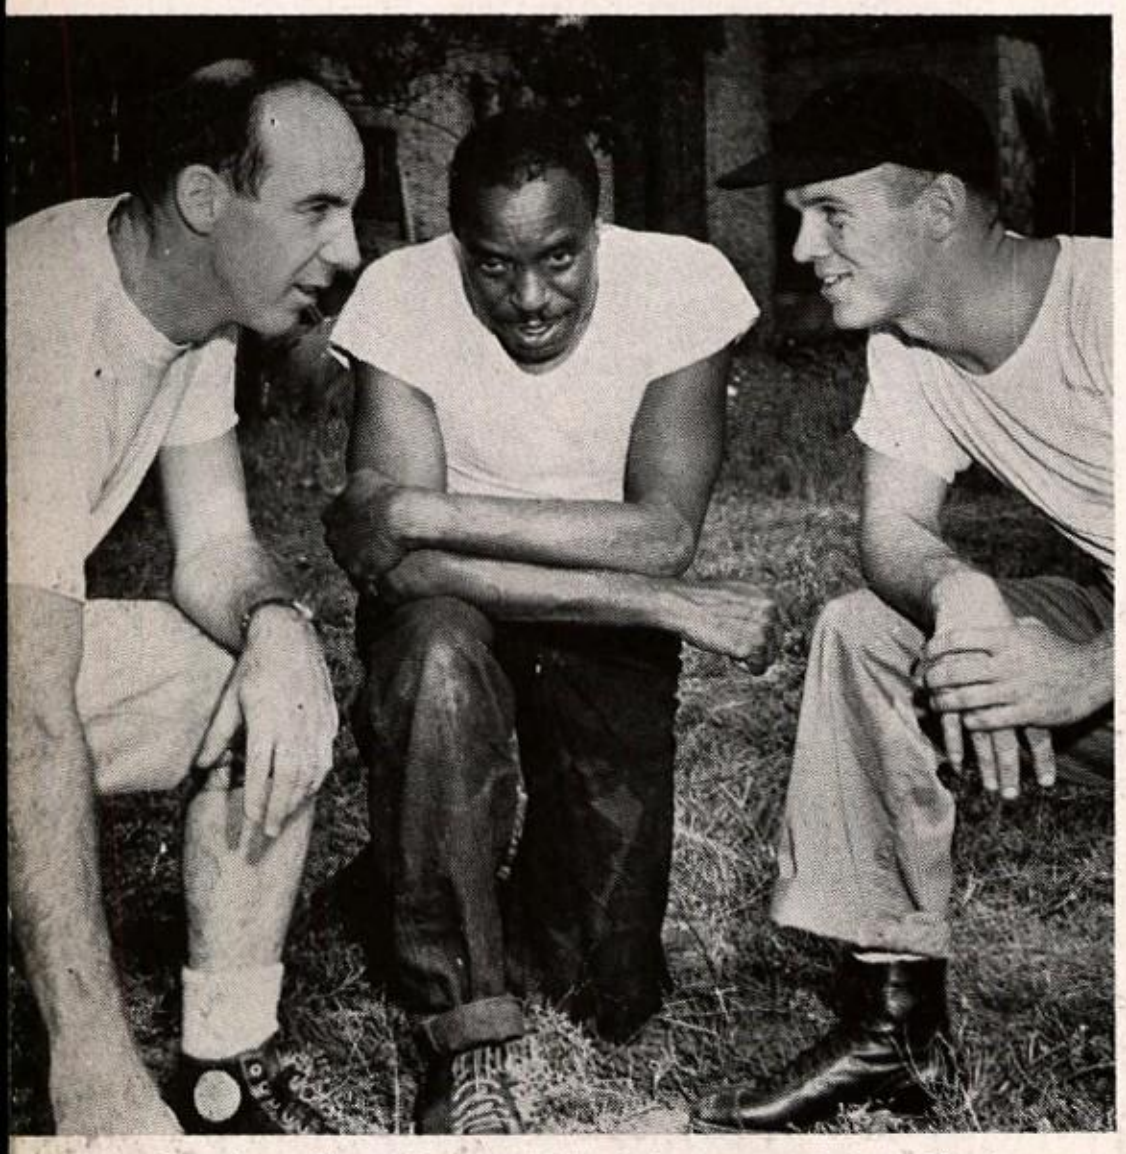
"It's not so much who won or lost,
But how you played the game."

IT IS DOUBTFUL Rudyard Kipling had ever heard of Ursuline High School or the '51 performance of her grid squad when he penned these famous lines; nevertheless, they are a perfect tribute.

For those who count success only in material gains, the '51 gridiron campaign will always be an unpleasant memory. When the thoughts of many students wander back to high school days, the '51 football season will undoubtedly be skipped over as quickly as possible and probably with a note of disdain. But those who have the insight and acumen to look beyond the cold percentages of the won and lost columns will recall fond memories of the true spirit of Ursuline, the spirit of '51.

in triumph...or defeat...



Coaches, Tom Carey, Nick Johnson and Joe Clark.

The "Big Three" who guide "Irish" athletic destinies have endeared themselves to faculty and students alike for their wholehearted devotion to their task and for their willing cooperation in all school functions.

Head Coach, Tom Carey, in his five short years at Ursuline has become a popular figure on the campus and throughout the district. He was elected district representative to the Ohio High School Coaches Association, an honor reserved for veteran mentors.

Nick Johnson, veteran assistant, has served under four coaches at Ursuline and has become a figure of local and national prominence. Coaches have come and gone at Ursuline, but Nick has remained to instruct and inspire hopeful young athletes.

Able assistant, Joe Clark, is a new face on the coaching staff but a familiar one on the Ursuline scene. A graduate of the class of '44, he starred on the gridiron and hardwood for the "Irish".

Managers Cecil Kimmel, Norman Johnson and Dave McGuire are the "minutemen" who perform the behind-the-scene tasks for the team along with Trainer Tony Zill who is always there with a friendly smile, a snappy anecdote . . . or maybe with the rubbing alcohol and bandages.

LETTERMEN

Inexperience and lack of weight proved the main handicaps to Ursuline's gridiron success this season. Winning one and dropping seven, the Irish finished last in City Series warfare. The season, however, produced twenty-three lettermen. Of this number thirteen were seniors, six were juniors, and four were sophomores. These facts seem to indicate that future Ursuline elevens will be quite strong — strong enough to offer serious competition in City Series football.

'51 FLASHBACKS

GRIDIRON GRIEFS

RAYEN 27 — URSULINE 0

Ursuline opened her '51 season with a defeat as the Rayen Tigers scored their second consecutive victory over the Irish. With Calvin Patterson leading the way, the Northsiders walloped their neighbors 27-0. The only Irish scoring chance was lost when Carmen Pomponio fumbled on Rayen's one yard line.

CAMPBELL 19 — URSULINE 6

Fumbles proved to be the deciding factor in the Campbell-Ursuline fray. Ron Sattler scored the lone Irish touchdown on a handoff from Gene Olsavsky in the fourth period.

EAST 25 — URSULINE 0

East scored four quick touchdowns in the first half and then coasted to victory as the Careymen were beaten for third straight week. Don Commings put the game on ice when he skirted right end for the first East touchdown.

NORTH 6 — URSULINE 13

With Jim Ramm doing some fancy signal calling, the Irish broke into the win column against North. Jim passed for one touchdown and scored the other as Ursuline upset the Bulldogs. Ned Ochman scored the first touchdown on a fourth down pass from Ramm. Harold Davis and Barney Wright led North to its only score late in the fourth period.

Our courage never wavered . . .

SOUTH 45 — URSULINE 14

South just had too much Morgan. The speedy Negro back passed and ran the Irish ragged in the first half. In the second half Ursuline held him and the score down but the first half had been too much. Sattler and Voytko scored for the Irish.

CHANEY 13 — URSULINE 0

Mickey Yacko seemed to be the only player who was able to stay on his feet as Chaney beat Ursuline in pouring rain. Yacko scored once and set up one touchdown in the sea of mud. Dave Kimmel unraveled two nice runs but the Irish couldn't make use of them.

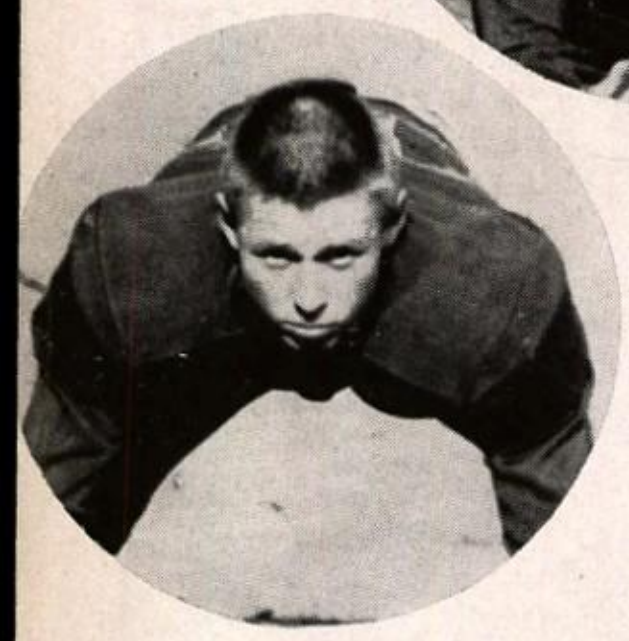
WILSON 20 — URSULINE 0

With weather conditions exactly opposite from those of the week before Ursuline lost again. Franko and Striechek led Wilson to Victory over the frozen ground.

CANTON CENTRAL 20 — URSULINE 7

Even though the score doesn't say so the Irish were in the game up to the final whistle. In the second period Ron Sattler scored to tie up the ballgame. The tie lasted only one period because late in the third quarter Jack Paris put Canton ahead to stay when he scored from the one yard line. After an interception had given Central the ball with 44 seconds to go Ed Hintz scored to sew up the game.

Our hopes never faltered . . . but

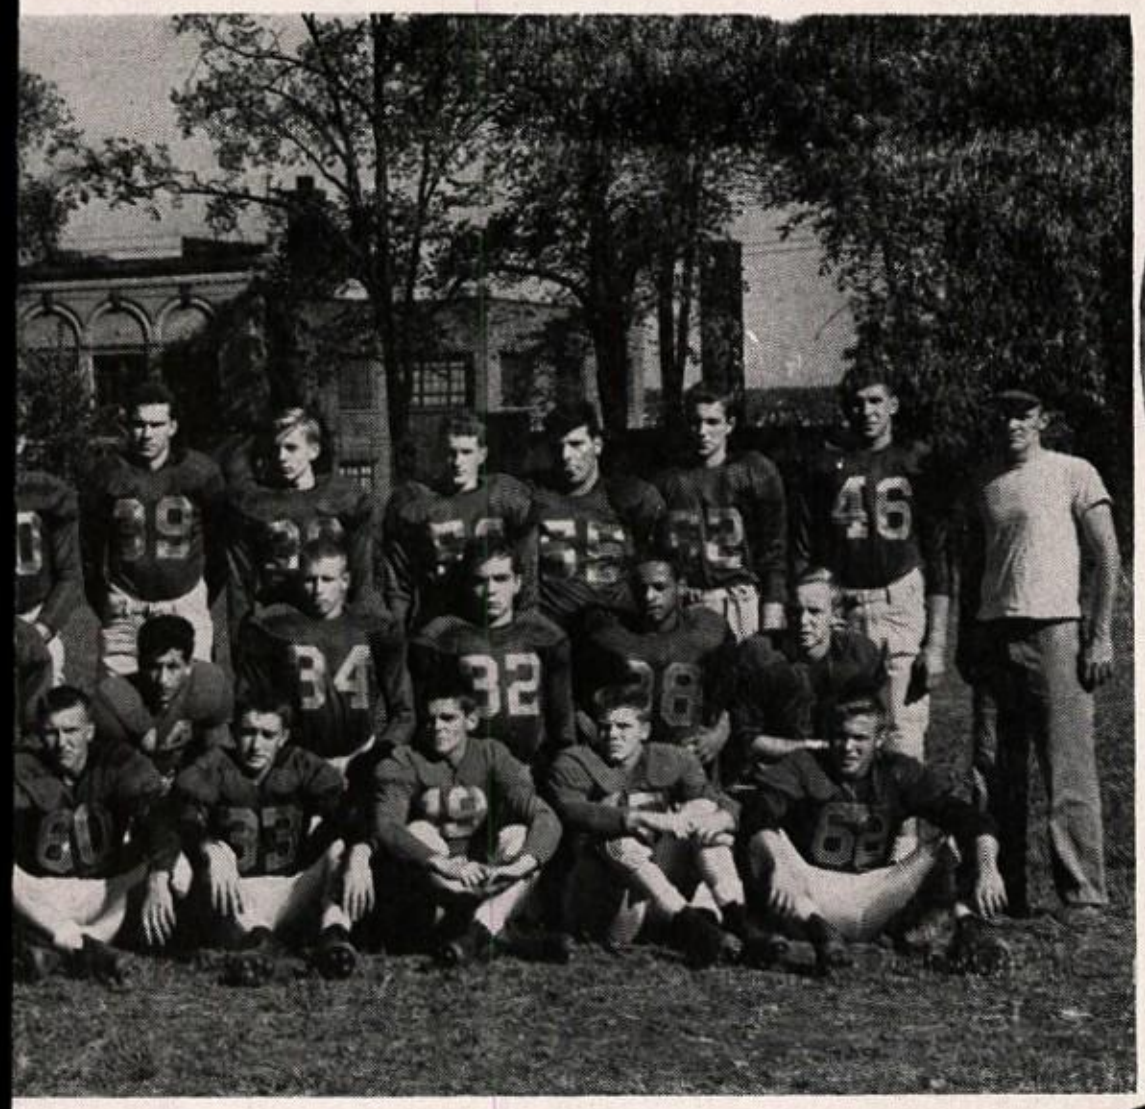


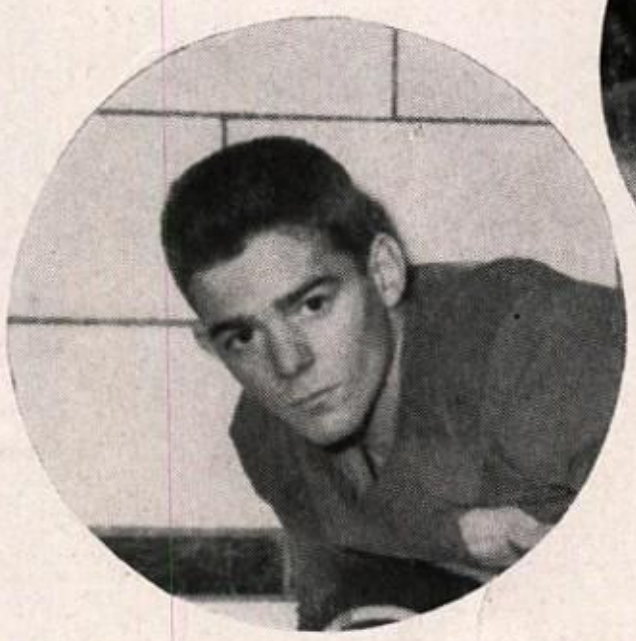
SENIORS LEAD 1951 TEAM

It is hard to believe that we won't see the familiar names of Jim Ramm (upper right), Mike Carney, Otto Drieling, Ned Ochman, Joe Smaltz, Hugh Barnwell, Dan O'Horo, Jim Corbett, Joe Vogelberger, Roger Dempsey, and John Steadman appearing in the lineups of football programs. These eleven seniors have made their names standouts for their school.

It seems only yesterday that these same boys were trying out for freshmen football, and finding it much rougher than the game they played at grade school level. We remember when they would complain and say they were going to quit. But they held on through rough and smooth — hoping that their dream of a berth on the varsity would come true.

we accepted losses gracefully . . . and





THROUGH ROUGH SEASON

Then came their sophomore year, the first year they were eligible to compete for varsity. Every night we watched them take their bumps and bruises. We then began to see confidence slowly but surely build itself up in them.

The junior year rolled around and again we saw these same boys who had forgotten the word quit, back for more. By this time we could see their great love for the game.

Then came the big year. They were seniors. They were still playing to the best of their ability for their Alma Mater. Senior year wasn't spectacular from the win-loss point of view, but the thing that will be remembered long after the statistics are forgotten is that these boys hung up their suits as good sportsmen.

RESERVES

A basketball team is easily compared to a chain which depends on its weakest link for its strength. The weak or strong point of a cage squad often lies in the reserve strength. The "Irish" reserves, although hampered by total inexperience, have shown a determination to win and a desire to improve. Under the guidance of Assistant Coach Joe Clark the aggregation has shown steady improvement with each game. Injured early in the season by the graduation of P. J. Moore and Dave Kimmel to varsity togs, the reserves pulled themselves up by their boot straps and carried on, sparked by the play of juniors Bill Carney, Len Granitto, Don Cannell, and sophomores "Butch" Sheeler, Jerry Scheetz, and Don Schulick.

VARSITY

Missing the reliable performers from last year's team the varsity started erratically but finished strong. John Steadman and Jim Savko were the only returning lettermen, and aided by players from the 1950-51 reserve and freshman squad, they led a green Irish team to a creditable 9 and 11 won and lost record.

TOP STARS OF '51-'52

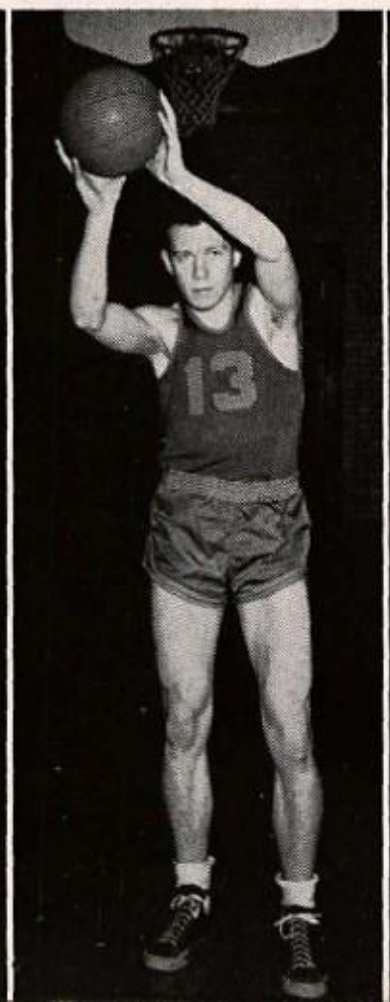
JIM SAVKO
Has been a stellar performer all season as he was at or near the top of the scoring column in every game.

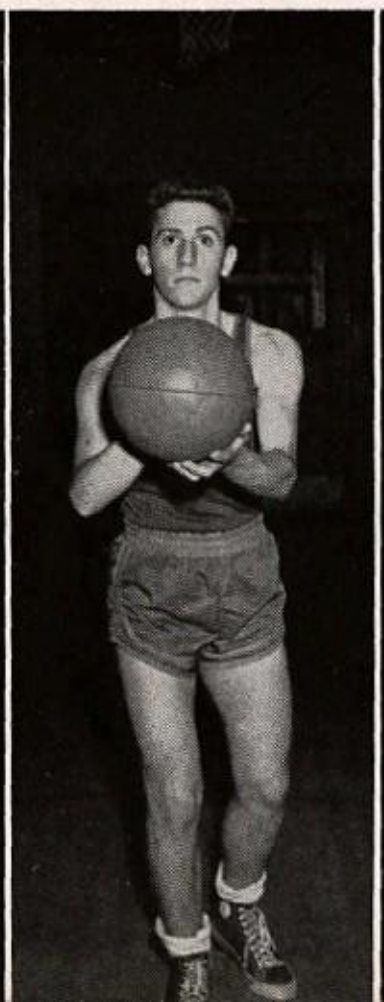
JOHN STEADMAN
6'3" senior center who played good ball all season and toward the end sparked the Irish to a fair season.

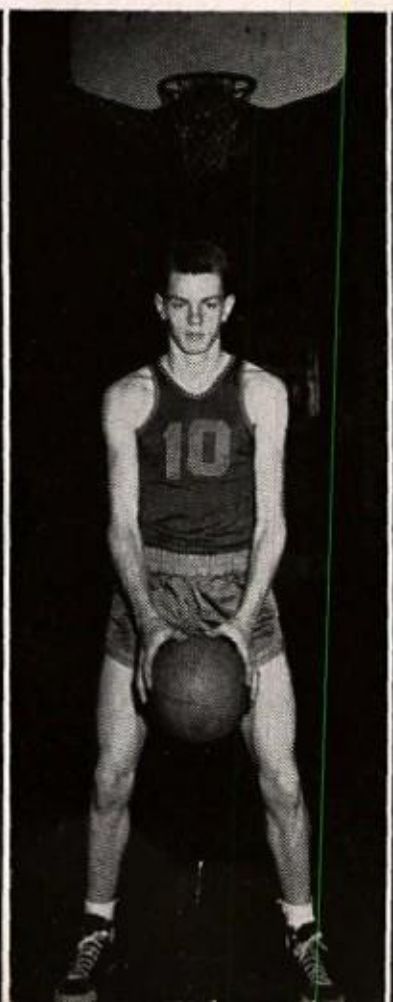
JOHN VALLEY
Steady player all year even though hampered by a leg injury; John was always near the top in scoring.

GENE SIKORA
Rangy junior who shows promise as a star next year. Gene helped big John Steadman control the backboards.

DAN O'HORO
Good defense ma who frequentl turned opponent plays into Iris scores.







HARDWOOD HEARTBREAKERS

URSULINE 44 — CANTON SOUTH 48

Ned Ochman hooped sixteen points in a vain attempt to lead the Irish to victory. Ursuline led in field goals but lost on fouls.

URSULINE 46 — CLEVELAND CENTRAL 52

The Irish also lost the second game on fouls as they led in field goals. Jim Savko chalked up fifteen points for Ursuline.

URSULINE 59 — CANTON CENTRAL 49

Ursuline made its first defense of the diocesan crown a success. John Steadman with seventeen markers topped both squads.

URSULINE 50 — NEW CASTLE TWP 26

Playing on their home court a superior Irish team drubbed New Castle Union Township for the second straight year. Ned Ochman led Ursuline with ten points.

URSULINE 46 — ERIE PREP 53

Erie Prep became the first team to beat Ursuline at home in five years as failure on the foul line again beat the Irish. Ned Ochman continued to hold top spot on the Ursuline scoring column as he meshed twelve points.

URSULINE 40 — ALUMNI 49

Led by "Zippy" Morocco's fifteen points the former Irish stars breezed to victory. High point man for the varsity was Pat Moore who hooped eleven points.

URSULINE 47 — RAYEN 56

Cal Douglas was too much for the Irish. The lanky Rayenite scored twenty-nine points as he almost beat the Irish by himself. Pat Moore with sixteen points was high man.

URSULINE 45 — AKRON ST. MARY'S 65

Ursuline suffered its sixth loss against two victories. Pat Moore and Gene Sikora each had ten points to lead Irish scorers.

URSULINE 41 — CAMPBELL 37

John Steadman broke loose for sixteen points and Ursuline bagged its third victory.

URSULINE 41 — NORTH 45

Although the Irish were supposed to be easy pickings, North didn't gain the lead until the second half as Ursuline almost upset the Bulldogs. Jim Savko bagged fifteen points for the Irish.

URSULINE 39 — EAST 53

Ursuline again ran out of gas in the second half after leading in the first half. Pat Moore led the Irish with fourteen points.

URSULINE 61 — HICKORY TOWNSHIP 51

John Valley became the first Irish player to get twenty points when he meshed twenty-one while leading Ursuline to an easy fourth victory.

URSULINE 43 — WILSON 36

Dave Kimmel with thirteen points led Ursuline to its fifth win and first City Series triumph.

URSULINE 43 — NORTH LIMA 46

The Fighting Irish forced the powerful North Lima squad into an overtime before finally bowing out. Pat Moore had fourteen points to lead Ursuline scorers.

URSULINE 48 — SOUTH 57

Ursuline was unable to hold Jack Carney and that was the story as the Irish dropped their fourth City Series game. John Steadman collected nineteen points for Ursuline.

URSULINE 60 — SPRINGFIELD TWP 41

Ursuline romped to an easy victory over Springfield Township. The Irish led at the end of every period as they won their sixth victory against ten losses.

URSULINE 65 — WARREN ST. MARYS 41

Ursuline retained the diocesan crown by swamping Warren. John Steadman racked up twenty points to become the second Irish player to collect twenty points or more in one game.

URSULINE 46 — CHANEY 36

The Irish won their third straight game and won their second City Series victory by walloping Chaney. John Steadman continued his hot streak as he scored fifteen points.

URSULINE 45 — SALEM 48

Failure to hit on the foul line cost the Irish another victory as Salem squeezed by on fouls. John Steadman had nineteen points to take individual scoring honors.

URSULINE 49 — WARREN HARDING 40

The Irish closed their regular season with a victory over Warren Harding. Joe Smaltz meshed twelve points to take scoring honors.

URSULINE 33 — GIRARD 42

The powerful Girard Indians eliminated the Irish in their first tournament game. Ursuline tied the Indians in field goals but made only seven fouls to Girard's sixteen and there was the ballgame. John Valley had seven points to lead Ursuline.

BOWLING TEAM

Watching Tom Simons chalk up a strike are Bill Beeman and Bill Eberhart while George Landis picks up ball.

Representing the "Irish" in the 1951-52 season were one senior and six juniors. Together they wound up in fourth place with a won-lost record of 34 and 26.

Senior Bill Eberhart led the green and gold in averages with a 157, while also gaining for himself the distinction of throwing the highest game in this year's league competition. He came through with an enviable 236.

Captain Ray Dohar completed the season with an average of 146. Rounding out the team were George Landis 136, Tom Simons 130, Harold Watson 126, John Chicone 116, and Bill Beeman 107.

CINDERMEN

Originally instituted for the spring conditioning of aspiring grid candidates, track is now rated on an equal basis with the pigskin and hardwood games. Sparked by their first victory in three years of competition, the trackmen are looking forward to a successful campaign with not a few eyes turned toward state laurels. The thinclads will take part in six meets and an interclass affair.

The possibility of capturing state honors no longer seems a far off dream but a close reality since "440" man Joe Smaltz sprinted his way through the district finals all the way to the State tournament before finally meeting his match.

Coach Carey presides over the thinclads, taking them through the required calisthentics and instructing them on the finer points of running and jumping.

Returning lettermen are John Steadman (440), Joe Smaltz (440), Ed Ridel (low hurdles), Jim Corbett (mile), Mike Carney (discuss), Bernard Maguire (broad jump, high jump), Bill Mermis (half-mile), Tom Heffron 100 yds., 200), George Landis (220, low hurdles).

Congratulations, Class of 1952!

IF YOURS WERE THE CHOICE of naming the date in history when you would most like to live, we're betting you'd choose tomorrow, with all of its challenge and promise! And so would we — because history never knew a more interesting era!

WONDERING WHAT WAITS to be discovered just outside the classroom door? Well, we're pretty sure that the degree in which your dreams will all come true depends almost completely upon your own determination! First you'd better build your ladder to the stars . . . and then, with all the faith and hope and trust that true success requires . . . climb to the very top! And our best wishes will go with you all the way!

"You've carried on and dreamed your dreams
Nor questioned your security;
But now those dreams have changed to schemes
The phantoms of futurity.

A thousand thanks—a last goodbye
A sigh for days that used to be,
The zenith calls where for you lie
The secrets of infinity."
